

LOOKING FOR FUNDING? FOR YOUR CLEAN ENERGY PROJECT

Photo: Peg Hambrick with State College Community Land Trust worked with WPPSEF to secure $450,000 in investment capital to help fund the construction of GreenBuild, an affordable duplex equipped with green energy technology in the Borough of State College.

Breakfast with the Fund

The West Penn Power Sustainable Energy Fund (WPPSEF) is a 501(c)3 non-profit that provides investment capital for sustainable energy projects that benefit the West Penn Power ratepayer. We are looking for innovative projects to fund through a Request for Proposals (RFP) due January 16, 2019. Our terms are flexible and we are easy to work with. Learn what we are doing and see if your project is eligible for financing or download our RFP here.

Tell us about your project and attend our workshop:
